[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, VA., May 6.-Danville wor DANVILLE, VA., May 6.—Danvillè won seventh consecutive victory to-day and went into the lead of the league by defeating Richmond by 4 to 2. The contest was a superb exhibition, both teams playing a game that was above the average. Happy Eckstone, who was on the firing line for the visitors, pitched good ball, with the exception of the seventh inning, when the Tobacconists connected for three safe swarts, which netted them for three safe swats, which netted them as many runs.

When the winning runs were made in the seventh the fans could hardly restrain themselves, and hats and other missiles were hurled high in the alr, while a nice silver offering came up from the grandstand and the bleachers for Reggy and Doyle, whose stick work turned the tide in favor of Danville.

Wallace the Hero. The feature for the visitors was the running one-hand catch by Wallace of a line drive that looked good for three sacks, and for the locals the star fielding sacks, and for the locals the star fielding of Henn and McKevitt. "Rube" Howard, who pitched the first five lindings for the Tobacconists showed up in good form, but had to leave the box on account of his arm being injured. Lavender, who succeeded him, showed up in good form, and had shaffer's coits at his mercy during all stages. O'Neal, second-baseman for Richmond, hurt himself while sliding to second in a safe steal, and was relieved by Hinton.

Richmond started the ball rolling in the first inning, when Titman hit the Richmond started the ball rolling in the first inning, when Titman hit the first ball thrown for two sacks, and Reeve, who followed him, beat out a bunt. Titman and Reeve worked a gouble steal, the former coming home while the latter was between second and first. A base on balls to Heffron, a stolen base, followed by a triple by Wellice, petted Richmond, another, rested Richmond, and the rested Richmond, and Richmond, a a stolen base, followed by a triple by Wallace, netted Richmond another run in the third. In this inning Eckstone showed up in great form, and retired the side with the bases full.

Danville's run in the fifth inning was made as the result of an error by Wallace, who, in his haste to gather in a long fly and throw the ball to the home plate, muffed home plate, muffed.

The fireworks were discharged in the seventh, when Hessler walked. Ryan singled, and Reggy hit for three sacks, scoring the two runners. A single by Doyle brought Reggy home.

The opposing twirlers for to-morrow's game will probably be Long and Ham. Salve has been confined to his bed all day with sickness.

ROANOKE LOSES ONE-SIDED GAME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., May 6.—Roanoke went down before Portsmouth this aftermoon in a one-sided attempt at a game by 7 to 2. Portsmouth batted Willis at will, and the fielding of the locals was poor.

On the other hand, Revelle had good control, pitched a steady game and was given glitedged support. In the fifth inning Raley had his collarbone broken by running into a player while endeavoring to catch a bad throw by Willis.

LEWIS FALLS EXHAUSTED

Great Excitement All Through Game-Orange and White Now Champions.

In the hardest fought college gamo probably ever witnessen on the Broad Street diamond, Wil-the Broad Street dlamond, William and Mary yesterday afternoon defeated Richmond College by score of 7 to 6. The contest was fought to a heart-breaking finish, and it was not until the last man was put out on the initial bag that victory was assured for the wearers of the Orange and White. Both sides were fearful of the final result, and almost innumerable errors characterized the game, William and Mary making 7 and Richmond College 11.

The bitterly contested game reached a crucial climax in the last half of the ninth inning, when Pitcher Lewis, of William and Mary, faced a problem of three men on bases and no man down. It was a bad quandary for a pitcher to be in, particularly when a little single would in all probability have meant two runs and a victory for the Spiders. But Lewis was game, and he saved the day with timely assistance from the infield. The first man struck out, the second went out on a pop fly to Joynes, and the third man went out on a grounder to Marsden.

The game was over, and pandemonlum broke loose in the grendstand and bleachers, where William and Mary rooters, a hundred or more monlum broke loose in the grendstand and bleachers, where William and Mary rooters, a hundred or more strong, who had hired a special train to bring them up, gave vent to such cheering as is rarely heard, even in a collegiate game. Even the Mayor of Williamsburg was present, and Mr. Warburton was as veciferous as the rest of them. All through the game songs and cheers of every description broke from the gathered rooters, and many a throat will pay the penalty today for the excitement and nervous tension of yesterday.

What a strain Lewis must have been under when the game rested in his hands in the night imping many has what a strap Lewis must have been under when the game rested in his hands in the ninth inning may be imagined when it is stated that, as he walked from the field, he fell exhausted just beyond the lines. He was brought round after careful attention, and was then carried from the field on the shoulders of admiring rooters.

Both pitchers played a star game. Lewis was up against it several times, but he never failed to pull himself out of any hole in which he found himself. He was repaid by his fellow-students for every effort he had made. Wright played a intreng game, and kept his head from beginning to end. Joynes, Longnecker, Driver and Garth may also be numbered among the stellar regions for William and Mary, while Gardner, Gwathmey, G. Wright and Luck starred for the Spiders.

Her Third Victory.

Her Third Victory.

This game marks the third victory for William and Mary, and thus gives them the championship of the Eastern Intercollegiate League. They defeated Randolph-Macon by the score of 8 to 3, and Hampden-Sidney 1 to 0, thus entitling them to the trophy.

William and Mary started off with three runs in the first inning. Arnold went to first on a wild throw by Richardson. Driver singled and Joynes bunted and reached first on an error of Richardson. On errors by Martin and Smith, all three runners scored. Two more runs were made by the Orange and White in the third inning. With two mem down, Longnecker singled, and was followed by Garth with a single. Longnecker went to third, scoring later on a bad throw-in. Smoot followed with another single, and scored Garth.

It was not until the fifth inning that Richmond College scored, and then the Spiders made four runs.

It was not until the fifth inning that Richmond College scored, and then the Spiders made four runs. Luck received his walking papers. Smith reached first on Somer's error, G. Wright went to first on Marsden's error, Marsden not being on the bag when the ball was thrown, and Luck and Smith scored. 412 Gardner filed out to Arnold, and Ezeklel 147 came in. Richardson then singled, and hits by Martin and D. Wright scored him.

on the premises, we will offer the above-described property. The owner and present occupant built the house for his home, and spared no expense in its construction, only the very best materials having been used. The house is delightfully planned, having rooms on both sides of a wide hall and lighted by deep windows that open on a wide veranda, which runs around the entire front and side of the building, and this, with the beautiful shrubbery, magnificent magnolla trees, gives an additional charm to this beautiful home.

The lot upon which this house stands is possibly the very highest point anywhere around Richmond, and the city and surrounding country stretches out in a gorgeous panoramic view.

There are 10 large high-pitched, well-lighted rooms, handsomely papered and delightfully arranged.
